

NCC and Red Cross Society organizes Blood Donation Camp at St. Aloysius College

With a vision that blood donation is service to humankind and by donating blood we can help a needy and save a precious life, the blood donation camp was organized with the collaboration of NCC and Red Cross Society of the college on 28th March 2018 in 'Perna' Auditorium of the college. The technical staff of the blood bank units of Rani Lady Elgen Durgawati Hospital, Shaskiya Seth Govindas Zila Hospital as well as by Indian Red Cross society and Jabalpur was present for collecting blood. Overall 119 units of blood were collected. This camp was a great success with a huge number of blood donors who donated blood for a noble social service. Both teachers and students enthusiastically participated in this Blood Donation Camp. Donors were given certificate for their contribution and initiative, by both the Blood Bank Organisations The Principal Rev. Dr. G. Vazhan Arasu, Vice Principals Rev. Fr. Ben Anton Rose, Dr. Kallol Das, NCC Officers, Capt. Dr. Sonal Rai, Sub Lt. Dr. Sanjay Rajak, Lt. Amit Yadav, Sub Lt. Mary Raymer, Red Cross Society In charge Mr. Prakash Lange were present to encourage this Social Service activity.