DETAILS:

Women Cell, St. Aloysius' Autonomous College Jabalpur ceaselessly endeavours to implement holistic training methodologies for the overall development of girl students. The subject of empowerment of women has becoming a burning issue all over the world including India since last few decades. The cell constantly works to create awareness regarding various women issues.

Looking into the current scenario of society and need of women empowerment, the Women's Cell of St. Aloysius(Auto.) College in collaboration with Women's cell Jabalpur organized an awareness programme on self-defense for the girl students of the college. There were around 300 girl participants and more than 20 police officers present. Mrs. Mohanti Maravi, DSP, Jabalpur Women's Cell along with Mrs. Rekha Prajapati (Inspector crime branch), Mrs. Sonal Shukla (Sub inspector) and the leader of Code red Jabalpur addressed the gathering.

The chief guest Mrs. Maravi, while addressing the students gave very useful information to them regarding various women issues including dowry system, eve teasing, sexual harrasement, domestic violence and many others.

The girls were provided information about various acts of Indian constitution like Proscro act and also gave help line numbers like dial 100 etc.
